Young Person Code of Conduct

Introduction

Gumma Place is committed to ensuring a respectful learning environment that is safe, positive and supportive for all young people attending Gumma Place

Purpose

Purpose

At Gumma Place we recognise that effective learning can only occur in a secure environment where the rights and responsibilities of others are known and respected and where standards and rules are fairly and consistently applied. This Student Code of Conduct has been developed to clearly set out standards of behaviour that young people attending Gumma place are expected to meet.

ShoreTrack Ltd recognises that effective learning can only occur in a secure environment where the rights and responsibilities of others are known and respected and where standards and rules are fairly and consistently applied.

This Young Person Code of Conduct has been developed to clearly set out standards of behaviour that young persons are expected to meet.

Scope

This Policy and its Procedures apply to all young people attending Gumma Place.

Roles and Responsibilities

Managing the Code of Conduct is a shared responsibility between the young person, parents/guardians and the Gumma Place. All young persons and families have ready access to support offered by Gumma Place teachers and staff.

Policy Statement

Values

Young Persons are expected to uphold the values of ShoreTrack Ltd. Our values are:

- excellence – in your schoolwork, extra-curricular, sporting and other personal endeavours
- respect – for your teachers, parents/guardians, peers and members of the community
- courtesy – with everyone you interact with
- pride – in yourself, and the way you represent the Gumma Place
- personal responsibility – for your actions
- integrity – honesty and candour in all of your dealings
- tolerance – for others, regardless of their background, age, gender, sexuality, religion or race
- inclusion – of all those who decide to come to ShoreTrack Ltd, and of those in the community.

These values are to be upheld in the way you conduct yourself not only in the Gumma Place, but also the community.
